IN MEMORIAM

The launch of this latest issue of Cybaris® is bittersweet. Kenneth L. Port, our law review’s founder and guiding force, passed away on September 27, 2019. He was 58. His contributions to the intellectual property community are immense. They are reflected in a prolific writing career that spanned ten books and dozens of law review articles, both with Cybaris® and at large.

Professor Port’s gifts extended far beyond his written work. A spirited teacher and advisor, he had the unique ability to challenge without being challenging; to push without being pushy. He dedicated countless hours to his students, guiding and mentoring tomorrow’s IP attorneys with a boundless energy that carried him even in illness. Professor Port’s influence can be felt in every page of this law review, and he is missed greatly by his staff. We resolve to follow the path he has laid out for us, while never filling the considerable footprints he leaves behind.
